How to Measure Poochie Pants for Correct Fit

Length: Measure from the base of the neck to the base of the tail. The length does have some "play". Meaning that if your girth fits but the length is short by 1-2" maximum, the garment will still fit properly.

Girth: Measure around the broadest portion of the ribcage. This is THE most important measurement. There is no extra room in the girth.
